GENERAL ORDER.HEADQUARTERS.*GRAND CAMP CONFEDERATE VETERANS OF VIRGINIA.

WARRENTON, VA., July 23, 1913.

To the Camps Composing the Grand Camp Confederate Veterans of Virginia:

The Twenty-sixth Annual Reunion of the Grand Camp of Virginia, Confederate Veterans, will be held at Roanoke city, September 17th, 18th and 19th, 1913, and it is urged that every Camp in the State shall send its full number of delegates to this meeting.

As the years go the realization is painfully forced upon us that the Veterans are passing all too rapidly, and it seems incumbent upon those who may be spared to dedicate themselves with increasing reverence to the perpetuation of the memory of the dead. Let the survivors demonstrate their devotion to the cause by attendance at the assembling of the few in honor of its glory and its defendants. Thousands have recently made pilgrimage to a field more famous for the heroism of Virginia braves. Similar zeal should assemble many at home in honor of our martyrs.

The attention of Adjutants of Camps is called to the importance of sending the returns of their Camps on the blanks enclosed to the Adjutant-General, Richmond, Va., and remit their dues to Maj. D. A. Brown, Quartermaster-General, Richmond, Va. It is not necessary to say that this is an important matter; that current expenses of the Grand Camp must be met, and that it takes all the funds that come into the hands of the Quartermaster-General to cover them.

I call your especial attention to Article VIII, Section 1, of the By-laws, reading:

Every Camp which has not complied with Article VIII, Section 1, of the By-laws, rules and regulations, which provides that each of the Camps composing the Grand Camp shall be assessed and pay ten cents per member annually to defray the expenses of the Grand Camp, and no Camp shall be entitled to representation at any meeting of the Grand Camp, unless its assessment has been paid to the Quartermaster-General or other proper officer prior to or at said meeting.

In addition to the requirement under the By-laws, by a resolution adopted by the Grand Camp at its meeting in Lynchburg in 1904, this matter is urgently passed upon as follows:

Your Committee on Credentials would respectfully suggest that the various Camps of Virginia be required to render their reports and make payment of the dues charged against their respective Camps ten days before the meeting of the Grand Camp to the Quartermaster-General of the Grand Camp of Virginia, and that a copy of this resolution be sent by the Adjutant-General in his circular to the Camps, requesting payment of annual dues sixty days before the meeting of the Grand Camp.

SPONSORS.

The Grand Camp, one Chief Sponsor and two Maids of Honor. Each district, one Sponsor and one Maid, to be recommended by the Inspector and appointed by the Grand Commander.

The committee, of which Comrade Boyd Smith is chairman (which was continued from last meeting, see Proceedings 1912, p. 44), will doubtless submit a report.

Your Inspector-General, Comrade Tipton D. Jennings, has been in poor health for the last twelve months, but hopes to be with you at Roanoke. The assistant inspectors should make prompt returns to him, giving condition of Camps in their District, so that he can, without trouble, formulate his report to the Grand Camp.

Railroad rates same as last year.

JOS. V. BIDGOOD,
Adjutant-General.

THOMAS SMITH,
Grand Commander.

MR. GRAND COMMANDER:

Your committee would report that we have examined the report of the Quartermaster-General and find all payments made by him supported by proper vouchers. As will be seen by this report, the revenue of the Grand Camp is very small. We would commend our Quartermaster-General, D. A. Brown, Jr., for his faithful and efficient services so freely given to the Grand Camp.

Respectfully submitted,

Whereas, On the memorable battlefield of Gettysburg there was held July 1-4, 1913, a great reunion of sixty thousand of the Veterans of the Confederacy and of the Union; and

Whereas, The said Veterans came together in peace, amity and brotherhood, presenting to the world the unexampled spectacle of the contestants in a long, bitter and bloody war within fifty years of its close, burying all bitterness and uniting in harmony for the happiness of themselves and the prosperity of their common country; and

Whereas, The sacred memory of so impressive and historic an event should, for the emulation and betterment of posterity, be forever cherished and preserved. Therefore, be it

Resolved, First, That it is the opinion of the Veterans of this Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of Virginia that this great event should be commemorated and its lessons forever preserved by the erection on the very field of peace of a fitting memorial worthy of the occasion and of our great country, and that this should be erected by appropriation made by the United States Congress, which represents our whole people, whose welfare is bettered by that great Peace Reunion.

JNO. T. CALLAGHAN, Chairman,
S. S. BROOKE,
E. MEADE.

The following communication from the Secretary of the Confederate Military Records was read.

To the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of Virginia:

COMRADES: It will doubtless be of interest to the Grand Camp and to the Veterans generally to learn of the progress made in the work of the Department of Confederate Military Records.

Since my communication to you of October 19, 1911, much has been accomplished. Many muster rolls, embracing cavalry, infantry, artillery, local defense and reserve forces have been secured. The rosters of a large number of companies in the various branches of the service, however, are still incomplete, but are being perfected as rapidly as authentic data can be obtained.

The department is kept continuously in touch with the hundred counties and twenty cities of this Commonwealth, and no effort is being spared in the diligent prosecution of the work.

In spreading, at a conservative estimate, approximately the one hundred and thirty thousand names now of record in this department, seventeen large six-hundred page registers have been required. These books are similar to those used by the clerks of courts in which to record deeds and are well made with durable bindings.

The records embrace sixty-four regular regiments of infantry, most of the regular battalions of infantry, the regiments of infantry reserves, battalions of infantry reserves, a large number of local defense troops and all of the regular regiments and battalions of cavalry.

The record of the generals and staff officers is nearly complete.

The artillery, navy, marine and signal corps, ambulance corps, county reserves, departmental organizations, and the officers and men of the quartermaster and commissary departments are yet to be compiled and recorded.

Before the work is complete there will have to be a general index embracing the names in each branch of the service, together with a large number of names upon a miscellaneous record which has been prepared for those whose assignments cannot be definitely ascertained. This index will be in alphabetical order and so arranged that ready reference may be had to any name upon the records.

The preparation of such an index will require much painstaking and arduous work, but when completed its value will be commensurate with the labor expended.

The correspondence of this department has steadily increased and certificates attesting the services of Confederate Veterans are being sent to all parts of Virginia and to all parts of this country.

Under an act of the last General Assembly, the Auditor of Public Accounts has referred to this department thousands of applications for pensions and it has become a valuable asset to the State in conducting pension investigations, which entail laborious research.

The State of Virginia appropriates annually five hundred thousand dollars for pensions and there are upon her pension rolls about ten thousand veterans and five thousand widows.

And now, in closing, as I said to you on a former occasion, the energetic continuation of the work of this department without interruption is imperative, for those from whom the most reliable information and aid can be obtained are rapidly passing from the field of action, and present activity is the essence of the bounds and limitations to which this department may attain.

It is hoped, in view of these facts, that the Grand Camp will exert its influence and shape its endeavors to the end that the next General Assembly will continue and encourage the work of this department by appropriations adequate to insure its proper completion.

The task is a labor of love and a duty which the State owes to the heroes who wore the gray, that their names, while there is yet time and opportunity, may be saved from oblivion and placed upon enduring records, where, like their deeds, they will shine with glory through coming ages.

I take this opportunity to extend my acknowledgments to those from whom I have received encouragement and assistance; the number is legion, and to urgently request all who have in their possession any records, muster rolls, papers and other data pertaining to the soldiers who entered the Confederate service in Virginia commands to apprise me at once of what they have and to allow me the opportunity to examine and make copies of same for permanent recordation and preservation.

Respectfully submitted,

JOS. V. BIDGOOD, Secretary.

Comrade S. W. Williams offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the communication of the Secretary of Confederate Military Records be approved and printed in the proceedings of this Grand Camp, and that we earnestly recommend and petition the next General Assembly of Virginia to make the necessary provision for the continuation of this important work under the present efficient management.

S. W. WILLIAMS.

Comrade T. D. Coghill offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of Virginia are hereby tendered the William Watts Camp, the city of Roanoke, the citizens and especially the ladies of the city for their hospitality and for the very great pleasure they have afforded the Grand Camp in its Reunion here.

T. D. COGHILL.

THE WORLD NEWS,

Roanoke, Va.

RICHMOND, VA., September 23, 1913.

MR. EDITOR: A resolution was passed by the Grand Camp, Confederate Veterans of Virginia, at its meeting in Roanoke, thanking the people for their kindness to the Veterans entertained by your city. I desire to add to that resolution by saying in all the Reunions of the Grand Camp and the many courtesies shown us, no place has surpassed Roanoke in the whole-souled welcome extended. You not only opened the doors of your homes to us, but, what was more appreciated, your hearts. Where all did so well their parts, it would be an invidious distinction to call names; besides, it would take too much of your space to do so. To one and all, Veterans, Daughters of the Confederacy, Sons of Veterans and citizens generally, not forgetting the valuable service of the Boy Scouts, in behalf of the Grand Camp I extend you our sincere thanks.

By order Grand Commander.

J. THOMPSON BROWN,

JOS. V. BIDGOOD,

Adjutant-General.

NEXT PLACE OF MEETING.

Invitations were read from the Mayor of Fredericksburg, Hon. J. P. Rowe and others, and from the City Council and Chamber of Commerce of the City of Newport News, to hold the Reunion of Grand Camp 1914. The vote being taken, Newport News was selected, and the vote made unanimous.

After prayer by the Grand Chaplain, Rev. Everard Meade, the Grand Camp adjourned.

JOS. V. BIDGOOD,

Adjutant-General.

THOMAS SMITH,

Grand Commander.
